

Unthrifty Loveliness

(Words: William Shakespeare S4)

Soprano

for Soprano, two Recorders & Harpsichord

Michel Rondeau
March 8th. 2008

Allegro ♩ = 100

8

Unthrif-ty love - li - ness, why dost thou spend Upon thy self beau - ty's

13

6

le - ga-cy? Na-ture's be-quest gives no - thing, but doth lend, and being frank

24

she lends to those are free: _____ Then, beau-teous niggard, why does thou a-buse

29

7

The boun-teous lar - gess gi - ven thee to give? Profit-less u - su-

42

6

rer, why dost thou use _____ so great a sum of sums, yet canst not live? For ha-ving traf - fic with thy self a-lone, Thou _____ of thy self thy sweet self dost de - ceive: _____

53

58

Then how when na-ture calls thee to be gone, What ac-cep-table au - dit

64

8

canst thou leave? _____ Thy un-seen beau - ty must be tombed with thee, which,

77

used, lives th'ex - e - cu - tor _____ be. rit.