

Sonata

DOMENICO SCARLATTI

K.144

Cantabile

The image displays a musical score for a sonata by Domenico Scarlatti, K.144, in the Cantabile movement. The score is written for piano and is organized into six systems, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The second system starts with a measure number '5' in the treble staff. The third system starts with a measure number '8'. The fourth system starts with a measure number '11'. The fifth system starts with a measure number '14'. The sixth system starts with a measure number '16'. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings like 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte). The score is presented in a clean, black-and-white format.

The image displays a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It is written for a piano accompaniment, featuring a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into five systems, each containing two staves. The first system starts at measure 18, and the fifth system ends at measure 29. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The music is characterized by a simple, folk-like melody with a mix of eighth and quarter notes. The overall style is that of a traditional folk song.

The first beat of bar 7 is currently e' in the left hand, but this has been written over several times. Either a d' or g' sounds more in character with the piece. (It is known only from a secondary source.)

Notes with oval heads may be played with the right hand, those with diamond heads with the left.
